Home Internet Availability:

Students will be required to complete a minimum of one assignment requiring access to the internet per week (defining vocabulary, watching videos, reading articles, etc.). Please select which scenario describes your situation.

√	Scenario
	We have a computer, tablet or other device (including a cell phone) with consistent internet access at home. Watching videos and submitting assignments online will not be a problem.
	We have a computer, tablet, or other device at home, but the internet is inconsistent. We understand certain assignments must be submitted online, so we will make arrangements to come to school early to submit it online before class, or to speak with Mrs. Clemens to make other accommodations.
	We have a computer, tablet or other device at home, but do not have any internet access. We understand that certain assignments must be submitted online, so we will make arrangements to come to school early to submit it online before class, or to speak with Mrs. Clemens to make other accommodations.
	We do not have a computer at home, but have access to the internet consistently at a friend or neighbor’s house nearby.
	We do not have a computer at home, and do not have access to a computer or the internet consistently.

I have reviewed the course description distributed to my student in class. I understand the requirements of the course and the class rules and policies (particularly relating to attendance, homework and cell phones). I understand that I can contact Mrs. Clemens if I have any questions and concerns and that my student has ample opportunities to attain extra help if needed.
